

Harvest Hosts™

Attract Motorhomes and RVs to Your Farm or Winery!

This program is offered to you as a FREE resource for you to attract new customers.

Harvest Hosts™ is a network of farmers, producers and vintners who are opening up their properties to free overnight stays (no longer than 24 hours) by self-contained RV owners.

Harvest Hosts™ can generate additional traffic to your business, and research has shown that goodwill generated by allowing RV owners to stay for free, motivates them to make purchases.

Let Harvest Hosts™ members be your ambassadors of goodwill, as word of mouth travels fast in the RV community.

Why should you become a member of Harvest Hosts?

- Approximately 8.2 million American households own an RV - this translates to one in every 14 households. People aged 35-54 are the largest segment of RV owners.

- The average RV owner has an annual household income of $68,000, higher than the national average.

- People over 50 control more than 7 trillion dollars in personal wealth.

How Harvest Hosts™ works.

Each property owner agrees to provide from one to four parking spaces to members of Harvest Hosts™ (you decide the size you can accommodate.) All guests are required to travel in self-sufficient RVs containing fresh water and waste holding tanks and must remove their trash at the end of their visit.

In our Host Directory, businesses are divided by region and each is represented with a photograph, name, address, website, telephone number, geographic coordinates (GPS) and the number and size of RVs the Host can accept.

Our members will present you with their membership card and their vehicle will have our annual sticker. They expect no services (water, electricity, sewer, etc.) from you and they agree to follow the Harvest Hosts™ Code of Conduct.

Partner with Harvest Hosts™ to make your business known as the RV friendly destination in your area. RV owners will know that, not only can you accommodate RVs, you will provide a free night of parking. The RV owner will likely reciprocate by making purchases at your business.
